I got this question from almost all of the Taiwanese I met during the last two years of stay here. My answer is this, the whole world is attracted towards Western culture and their lifestyle. But I was interested to experience the Eastern culture or the Chinese culture and their lifestyle. I heard a lot about Taiwan and its culture before I decided to come here for higher studies. I am mesmerized with the people's behavior and their politeness. I am more interested in Technology and Innovations, even though I am majored in Biotechnology and Taiwan is known for its Technological innovations was the other reason to come here to study. I choose Taiwan ahead of other Asian countries, since the cost of living is comparatively cheaper than the other major cities in Asia.

I was lucky enough to be introduced to scholarships offer by Taiwan-ICDF. While doing my last year of university in El Salvador, I joined a presentation of studying in National Pingtung University, Taiwan. That motivates me to persuade a further degree in Taiwan and also to work in fulfilling the scholarship requirements, like English proficiency.

When I was first introduced to Taiwan and the university, I immediately realize all the resources that they have, which influence my choice. In addition, I was instantly attracted by Taiwan's culture and a strong feeling to know the country grew up in me.

My major in my undergraduate study is English (Teaching English as Foreign Language). However, I have interest in Linguistics courses and languages, and then I think about continue my study in a master program abroad. Finally, I choose Taiwan instead of another English-speaking country (I was given a chance to choose either of them by my scholarship provider) considering the chance to learn Chinese to expand my knowledge on different languages. My language ability was also solved when I learn that Taiwan has many great Chinese Language Centers and in addition the professors of the universities in Taiwan mostly graduate from the States. In addition, I was really impressed by the advertisement of Taiwan government "Taiwan Touch Your Heart". And I happened to know a kind professor from NCCU as well. He told me many things about Taiwan. These are the reasons why I chose this country for my graduate study and I really enjoy it till today.

Three main reasons guided my choice of Taiwan as the place for my study:

-First, my passion for Chinese. I wanted so much to be able to speak Chinese someday as I knew Chinese was set to become an important language and also because I wanted to learn the Chinese culture.

-Second, I was awarded a scholarship from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Taiwan.

-Third, my country does have diplomatic relations with Taiwan and therefore I was expecting a friendly welcome.

Out of all the possible destinations in the world, I chose to study in Taiwan because I want to improve my Chinese speaking abilities and learn about the Taiwanese culture. As a Thai citizen with Chinese roots, I believe that my stay in Taiwan will give me a better understanding of the customs and traditions that my family practices at home. Academically, I would like to take history and culture courses to know more about the country where I live in. The diversity in PCCU will let me learn to be friends, cooperate with foreign people.

My ambition is to continue my study abroad. There are several reasons why I choose to study in Taiwan.

The first, Taiwan has good quality of education. It is better than Indonesia and Malaysia. Most lecturers in Taiwan are qualified because they graduate from advance technology countries such as Amerika, Japan, etc. The second, universities in Taiwan also have sufficient facilities. They have libraries that open in 24 hours a day. Each student can borrow the books or even sleep there. They have modern laboratories too. The third, when I study in Taiwan, I will improve not only my English but also Mandarin language. And last but not the least, I will become independent, not dependent on our family like I used in our country.

In brief, studying in Taiwan give me big chance to upgrade my knowledge fluently.

I chose to study at NTUA (Taiwan) to be in an environment of a totally different culture and enjoy the adventure here. It is a test for both me and my works when I face a brand new world. NTUA/ Taiwan is the starting point. I have seen a lot of things that I could not imagine. I live in a place where I have no landmark, so it is a good situation for me to learn.

In 2007 I came to Taiwan to learn mandarin. I studied it for 1 year and 3 months. When at this time, I met many Taiwanese friends. I could learn mandarin and also improved my English. I liked the Taiwanese culture, and when I went back to Brazil to finish my undergraduate program, my mind was in applying to a master degree in Taiwan. I know that the Chinese language is becoming very important, and study a master degree in another country could let me have a great experience. And in the future, I could use it to get a good job.

History

The name "Taiwan," meaning "terraced bay," was first used in 1430 by Admiral Cheng Ho of the Ming court. In the 16th century, the Portuguese named the island "Ilha Formosa" meaning "Beautiful Island." The name Formosa was used until the end of WWII.

Situated between northern and southern Asia, Taiwan has long played a crucial role in trade and politics. Taiwan's location brought frequent invasions, but also provided the conditions needed for a modern, prosperous and democratic country.

Climate

In subtropical, northern Taiwan, the temperature during the cool, mild winters averages 18°C / 64°F. The average temperature rises to 31°C / 88°F during the hot, humid summers. Southern Taiwan has a tropical, marine climate with generally warm and relatively dry weather.

In the mountains, temperate conditions prevail. Snow may accumulate on some of the highest peaks, such as Yu Shan and Ho-Huan Shan. Rain may fall at any time, but the greatest amount usually falls from April to August. Typhoon season is from May to September.

Geography

Taiwan lies along the western edge of the Pacific Ocean, 193 km (120 miles) off the southeastern coast of mainland China. Taiwan has a land area of about 36,000 square km (14,400 square miles) and is nearly bisected by the Tropic of Cancer. The island is shaped somewhat like a sweet potato.

Taiwan has broad plains, rolling hills, and precipitous mountains that form the spine of the island. There are six peaks over 3,500m - the highest is Yu Shan at 3,952m - and more than 200 peaks over 3,000m. Swift rivers have carved steep gorges through the mountains. Taroko Gorge, with vertical rock walls hundreds of meters high, is a wonder of nature. Geothermal activity has produced many hot springs in mountains.

Due to the abundant rainfall and generally warm temperatures, vegetation grows rampantly in Taiwan, from lowland agricultural crops to all manner of plant life cloaking the hills and mountains. Due to its unique climate and geography, the flora and fauna of Taiwan are tremendously diverse, and many species are endemic to the island.

Culture

The culture of Taiwan is a blend of modern and traditional, national and international, unique and universal. Due to Taiwan's complex political history, the influences of indigenous culture, Confucianism, Japan, and Western civilization all can be seen at the same time.

The Japanese occupation of Taiwan from 1895 to 1945 influenced language, culture, and architecture. Visitors can still find a Japanese-style mansion and hear old Japanese songs emanating from nearby taverns.

Taiwan's aboriginal culture is unique and has started to flourish since the Ami chant "Jubilant Drinking Song" was sampled in a song to promote the 1996 Olympics. However, the dominant culture in Taiwan is still Chinese. Immigrants from mainland China, especially those who arrived in 1949, after civil war, brought Confucianism and Chinese culture to Taiwan. The National Palace Museum has an outstanding collection of 650,000 pieces of ancient Chinese artifacts brought from the Forbidden City, making it a major attraction for visitors. Visitors also will see ornate temples and traditional Chinese characters.

Cuisine

In Taiwan, where it seems the people live to eat, it is said that there is a snack shop every three steps and a restaurant every five. Foods and dishes from around the world are available in Taiwan. However, Taiwan's native cuisine, which has gained worldwide attention, is unforgettable - try it just once and you will remember it forever. Memorable dishes include: Pearl Milk Tea, Danzai Noodles, Shrimp Pork Soup, Oyster Omelet, Meat Rice Tamales, Stinky Tofu, Taiwanese Meatballs, Coffin Sandwich, Veggie and Meat Wrap, Oyster Vermicelli, Steamed Sandwich, and Crushed Ice Dessert.

Taiwan has been a growing curve. Learning independence and self reliance in a warm and friendly environment. Learning the language could be challenging at times but I had very supportive teachers who took their time with us and also lots of friends who were willing to help out when I needed them. The school environment itself is very quiet and peaceful which has helped me focus of my studies without much distraction. It has been a positive experience so far. I have been able to attend one of the university's ballroom dance club and competed in both national and international competitions the experience of which I have found to be very rewarding.

The country had a rich and diverse culture that is beneficial for international students to learn and feel at home. Although language is a barrier to full appreciation of the people of Taiwan learning it is a challenge let alone interesting and fun.

But in order for Taiwan to be seen in the global picture or community English is an essential component that needs to be well taken into account for the new generation.

The Educational System of Taiwan

Overview

The people of Taiwan are very well educated, literacy is about 96%, and students from Taiwan score very high on international tests. These achievements are the product of cultural and societal values that hold education in high esteem, and the comprehensive educational system created to achieve Taiwan's goals of becoming a well-educated, economic and technological powerhouse on the world stage.

Two years of pre-school education, including kindergarten, are optional. However, most children in Taiwan attend at least one year of pre-school.

Formal schooling begins with 9 years of compulsory education, starting with 6 years of primary school followed by 3 years of junior high school. Following junior high school, students may go on to 3 years of senior high school or vocational school, or begin a 5-year junior college program.

Higher education in Taiwan includes 4-year bachelor's degree programs and 2-year junior colleges. After that, students may advance to master's degree programs, which typically take 1-4 years to complete, and 2-7 year long programs leading to a Ph. D, M.D. and other advanced degrees. Completion times are flexible, depending upon the needs of the students.

♦ See chart on the right hand side as the educational system of Taiwan

Compulsory Education

Since 1968, students in Taiwan have had 9 years of compulsory education, comprised of 6 years of elementary school and 3 years of junior high school. Students usually start first grade at age six. At the end of junior high school, students take another set of exams to qualify for different senior high and vocational schools.

Senior High and Vocational School

After graduation from junior high, there are two types of institutes for continuing students: senior high school and senior vocational school. Both take 3 years to complete.

Specialized Training

Specialized training beyond the secondary level is provided by 5-year junior colleges, which accept students directly from junior high schools and focus on applied sciences and technology.

Higher Education

The higher education system in Taiwan includes 2- and 5-year junior colleges, technical colleges, liberal arts colleges, 4-year universities, and graduate programs.

Most university undergraduate programs take 4 years to complete. Extensions of up to 2 years will be granted to students who are unable to fulfill their requirements within the designated time. Specialized undergraduate programs, such as dental school (6 years) and medical school (7 years), take longer to complete.

Universities and colleges in Taiwan offer a wide variety of master's and doctoral degree programs. Graduate programs leading to a master's degree take 2 to 4 years to complete, while doctoral degree programs take 2 to 7 years. If a student who enters graduate school as part of on-the-job training fails to finish the required coursework or complete a thesis, the student will be granted an extension.

Note
 Most higher educational institutions in Taiwan set the academic year to begin from August to September of the following year. Every academic year has 2 semesters: the first semester (August~ January) and the second semester (February~ July). There are 2 holiday seasons: the winter vacation (January~ February) and the summer vacation (July ~ August).

I like studying in Taiwan. Of course, our university's study experience is different from Mongolian Universities. I amazed when I took seminars guideline for nutrition and I am imagining a seminar is like a conference. Prof. Huang teaches us nutritional biochemistry and lecture is very interesting. There are 7 Ph.D students from different country. We are talking about food culture, dietary style in ourselves.. I think that the most interesting lesson is Chinese language within chosen courses. Because there classes are few students from different countries, especially Mongolia, Indonesia and India. I am so happy for studying in TMU with friends from different countries.

Accommodations

On-campus Accommodation

On-campus undergraduate dormitories are divided based on gender and are open to students all year-round. Typically, four to six students share a room. Usually, pets are not allowed. University students usually wear something casual to class. Coin operated laundromats can be found inside dormitory buildings. At on-campus dining halls meals cost NTD40-130(≈USD1-4). Food stalls, cafes and inexpensive restaurants are usually close to campus, typically within 15 minutes walking.

Some campuses have on-campus health centers, which provide medical assistance for minor ailments. Some schools have a post office, a bookstore and a bank on campus. The expenses are about NTD 6,000 to 10,000(≈USD190-310) per semester.

Off-campus Accommodation

If dormitories are unavailable or you prefer a different living arrangement, off-campus apartments, including studios and flats, are available. Most Chinese learning centers provide information about local rentals on the internet. Depending on the accommodation's type, quality and location, rent ranges from NTD 3,000 to 13,000(≈USD95-410) per month.

Note

For further information about off-campus accommodation, please go to the Tsuei Ma-Ma Foundation website. www.tmm.org.tw/English/index.html

Living cost

The Taiwan currency is the NTD. The 4 denominations of bills are NTD2,000, NTD 1,000, NTD 500 and NTD 100 while the 6 denominations of coins are NTD 50, NTD 10, NTD 5, and NTD 1. Cash payment is common in Taiwan though many shops do accept credit cards. Checks are not normally used in Taiwan for payment of everyday expenses.

In addition to your tuition fees, your accommodation costs will be your biggest financial burden. It's worth doing research before you arrive on your accommodation options, and better to research the cost of things such as utilities (electricity, gas, water, telephone), public transportation, food and so on. The cost of all things may vary depending on the area you'll be living in.

Daily Goods

Taiwan is well-known as one of the countries with a cheaper cost and high quality of living. The following is a few examples of goods. The cost of all things may vary depending on the area you'll be living in.

Rice (2kg)
NTD 110 ≈ USD 3.40

Milk (1000ml)
NTD 120 ≈ USD 3.75

Hamburger
NTD 50 ≈ USD 1.56

Coca Cola

NTD 25 ≈ USD 0.78

Taxi

Eggs (10 eggs)
NTD 40 ≈ USD 1.25

* (USD 1 ≈ NTD 32)

Services

Bank Accounts

Most banks offer foreign currency exchange and bank services in NT dollars. International students can open bank accounts with their passports and ARC cards. Individual who wants to open an account without an ARC card needs to get a universal identification number at the local police office.

Postage

Chunghwa Post, the postal service of Taiwan, provides international and domestic mail services to the public. There are over a thousand branches, distributed all over the island, providing regular and express postal service. International students can apply for a postal box at the nearest branch. Students who receive Taiwan Scholarship need to open an account at a post office Chunghwa Post.

In addition, most convenience stores serve as pick up locations for international and domestic express services.

Insurance

International students with an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) who have resided in Taiwan for 6 months must enroll in the National Health Insurance (NHI) program at a local administrative office. Before they are eligible for the NHI program, students can purchase their own insurance or participate in a temporary health insurance program offered by the international students' office at their educational institution. The insurance premium has to be paid monthly once registration is completed. The premium is NTD 7,908 (about USD 247) per year. The cost of NHI is included in tuition fee every semester. Once registered with the National Health Insurance, you will only need to pay 30% of the total medical bill.

International students, who enroll in the NHI program, should apply for the NHI IC card. Students can fill in the "NHI IC Card Application Form," and attach a photocopy of your identity document, Mail or bring it in person to a nearby NHI branch office or liaison office. You will need the following documents: application form, passport, ARC, and two one-inch photos.

Note

Further information about National Health Insurance (NHI)

It's a health insurance for all people in Taiwan since 1995. The main goals are to improve patients' access to health care by easing their financial burden and to make sure that no one would be forced into bankruptcy by a serious illness.

Transportation

By Train

The railway network along the coastline is another economic option for traveling around Taiwan. There are four classes of passenger seats: Tze-chiang, Chu-kuang, Fu-hsing and economy. Traveling by train is recommended on public holidays because it can avoid the hustle and bustle of the long distance highway bus service. Advanced ticket reservations are recommended.

By Air

There are six domestic airlines providing services between major cities such as Taipei, Taichung, Tainan, Kaohsiung and Hualien. Prior reservations are always required.

By Taiwan High Speed Rail (THSR)

If you would like to save time, THSR is another choice. While traveling from Taipei to Kaohsiung takes 5 hours by train and 6 hours by car, the THSR takes only 1.5 hours. Advanced reservations are recommended.

By Motorcycle/Scooter & Bicycle

Motorcycles and scooters are very popular means of transportation. Most universities provide motorcycle/scooter parking around campus for students. Bicycles are widely used within campuses. Bicycle racks can be found throughout campuses.

By Highway Bus

Long distance highway bus services provided by private transportation companies are very popular. They have an extensive network and a frequent service schedule. Tickets are usually competitively priced and some bus companies even provide 24 hour service.

By Passenger Car

In Taiwan, cars are driven on the right. Students with international driver licenses may drive in Taiwan. However, driving is not recommended for those who are unfamiliar with the unique road and traffic conditions in Taiwan. Traffic is heavy and car drivers must watch out for slow-moving pedestrians and bicyclists, fast-moving motorcycles and scooters, as well as other cars, buses and trucks. Drivers have to be extra cautious. International or foreign driver license holders can apply for ROC driver licenses at the local Motor Vehicles Office.

By Metro / Subway

In Taipei and Kaohsiung, the metro system (MRT) provides convenient and comfortable transportation. There are nine major routes in Taipei and two major routes in Kaohsiung, covering different parts of the two cities. Metro fares range from NTD20-60 (USD0.6-1.8).

By Bus & Taxi

Each major city has its own bus system. Fares are inexpensive and service is frequent. Taxi fares start at NTD 70 (USD 2.1) and increase with the time and distance traveled. It is a good idea to have the name of your hotel or address written in Chinese when you travel by taxi.

Job Opportunities

Insurance

International students who have attended school in Taiwan for two semesters or a language program for one year, and who have an excellent academic record, can work in Taiwan when one of the following applies:

- Events of a serious nature have affected their financial ability to support themselves or continue their education, and the student can provide evidence of such circumstances
- An academic research institution at the student's school requires a foreign student to provide assistance in its work
- The student needs to take part in an off-campus internship related to his or her field of study

Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL)

Organization Introduction

The Steering Committee for the Test Of Proficiency-Huayu (SC-TOP) was established in November 2005 under the direction of the Ministry of Education of R.O.C. Originally "Chinese Language Testing Center" and renamed in January, 2007, the Committee aims to develop and promote an effective Chinese assessment system, mainly the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL), for Chinese learners worldwide to assess their Chinese proficiency.

Test Introduction

TOCFL is a foreign language proficiency test for non-native speakers of Chinese. Those who wish to know about their level of Chinese proficiency, or those who want to study, work or do business in Chinese speaking countries are welcome to register for the test.

TOCFL is administrated in four levels, For Beginners, Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced.

For the Basic, Intermediate and Advanced levels of TOCFL, each level has three sections, including listening, vocabulary and grammar, and reading. The total number of test items is 120, and the total testing time is 110 minutes.

The For Beginners level of TOCFL measures both listening and reading skills of non-native Chinese speakers at the beginning level. The first test was administrated in Nov. 2007. The total number of test items is 80, and the total testing time is 80 minutes.

TOCFL is given in multiple-choice items. Test takers get one point for each correct answer. There is no penalty deduction for the incorrect answer.

Target Test Taker

The TOCFL for Advanced level is designed for:

- non-native speakers of Chinese.
- test takers who have taken 960 hours of Chinese courses in Taiwan or 1920 hours in countries and areas other than Taiwan.
- test takers who have acquired a vocabulary base of 8000 words.

Test Content

The authentic materials used in the TOCFL are extracted from materials in daily life, such as advertisements, public announcements, notices, letters, memos, time schedules, and weather broadcasts. In addition, these diversified texts are derived from a variety of fields, including literature, science, art, astronomy, and history.

The certificate of TOCFL can be used as an official document when applying for admission to undergraduate and graduate programs in Taiwan. Also, many international businesses, such as LG, adopt TOCFL as reference for their employee dispatch programs in Taiwan.

TOCFL Testing Overseas

To meet the demand of numerous international Chinese learners, the SC-TOP has started to provide overseas test services since 2006. Candidates can now choose to take the TOCFL test in Japan, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, USA, UK, and France. Also, the SC-TOP plans to increase test locations annually.
